

Sail Away on My Silver Dream
By Jeff Guenther

Come, sail away on my silver dream,
Cast off the hawsers of care,
Leave all your troubles and sail away
Over the ocean with me.

Come, sail away on my silver dream,
Let the wind blow through your hair.
Feel the sun and the salt water spray,
Know what it's like to be free.

Come, sail away on my silver dream,
Breathe in the fresh briny air.
Let your heart soar on the wind today,
Over the sapphire sea.
